Bailey, along with her siblings, has always been fascinated by the stories of their grandmother, who claims to have traveled through magical portals to different fairy tale worlds. But when they accidentally discover one of these portals themselves, they are transported to the kingdom of Rumpelstiltskin, where they must face a cunning villain who will stop at nothing to get what he wants.

As Bailey and her siblings navigate through this treacherous world, they learn valuable lessons about friendship, courage, and the importance of being true to oneself. Along the way, they encounter beloved characters like Cinderella, Little Red Riding Hood, and the Three Little Pigs, who offer their guidance and support.

With its captivating story, dazzling illustrations, and engaging writing, Good As Gold is a book that will entertain and enchant readers of all ages. It is a timeless tale about the power of imagination and the importance of following your dreams, no matter how challenging they may seem.
